PETER M. HOLT
CHAIRMAN AND CEO

As far as Peter Holt is concerned, the 2002-03 campaign couldn't have been better for Spurs Sports & Entertainment (SS&E). The season began with one celebration and ended with another.

In November, the Spurs played their first regular season home game in the community's brand new arena, The SBC Center – a venue with a design and decor that celebrates South Texas and features the latest in technology.

David Robinson played his farewell season with passion and poise, drew accolades and appreciation from fans all across the country, and received the ultimate honor from the NBA when the league renamed their community service award to bear his name.

During the regular season, the NBA named Tim Duncan, for the second consecutive year, "Most Valuable Player," and Coach Gregg Popovich "Coach of the Year" for the first time.

And finally, after a wildly competitive postseason, the Spurs went on to capture their second NBA Championship title in five years, beating the New Jersey Nets in six games.

In a joint venture between SS&E and the Florida Panthers, the San Antonio Rampage brought American League Hockey to San Antonio for the first time in the city's history in October. The Rampage enjoyed a successful inaugural season, qualifying for the AHL playoffs.

After a three-year campaign to bring the WNBA to San Antonio, Holt and SS&E saw that dream come true on November 13, 2002, when the WNBA announced that San Antonio had been granted a franchise. In May 2003, the San Antonio Silver Stars kicked off their inaugural season in the Alamo City. The Silver Stars finished the season ranked third in attendance, averaging 10,384 fans per game.

Holt, along with his wife Julianna Hawn Holt, bought into the Spurs ownership group in 1996, and Holt became chairman of the board that same year. Under Holt's franchise leadership, 1999 was a landmark year. The Spurs earned their first NBA championship rings and Bexar County voters gave a resounding "yes" on the issue of building what would become The SBC Center. Those events set the stage for the successes of 2002-03.

The great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first crawler-tractor, which became the basis for Caterpillar, Inc., Peter Holt is President and CEO of San Antonio-based Holt Companies. The firm, which still displays one of Ben Holt's early tractors outside its headquarters, owns the largest Caterpillar dealership in the United States.

Holt, a native of Peoria, Illinois, lived in San Antonio as a child, later moving to Corpus Christi where he graduated from high school. He then served two years in the U.S. Army during which he earned a Silver Star, three Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart from his one-year tour of duty in Vietnam. He ended his military service as a Sergeant E5.

A staunch believer in community service, Holt is proud of the Spurs' commitment to South Texas and its residents. In 2000, the team earned the Pro Team Community Award awarded by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame. The award annually goes to the professional sports franchise – basketball, baseball, football or hockey – that best illustrates exceptional community involvement and fosters community pride and spirit.

Among the Spurs' community efforts are the Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, the annual countywide United Way campaign and the Fannie Mae Foundation's Home Team Partnership – an alliance that helps build or refurbish homes to be purchased by low-income families.

Holt's own efforts away from the basketball arena include a lengthy list of community service positions. He has been a member of the World Presidents' Organization, is on the board of the San Antonio Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse and is past chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County.

Today, Holt is busy running his own business while also serving as a corporate board member for Chase Bank – San Antonio, board member of Free Trade Alliance San Antonio and the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation, and board chairman of St. Mary's Hall, a private school in San Antonio. He is also a trustee of Trinity University and is on the board of The Trust Company, a national bank in San Antonio that specialized in wealth management and fiduciary services.

His role as the Spurs CEO and board chairman is still another job, but one that many in the business world take in a heartbeat.

RUSS BOOKBINDER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/BUSINESS OPS.
WNBA GOVERNOR

Russ Bookbinder serves as the Executive Vice President of Business Operations for Spurs Sports & Entertainment. Now in his 16th season with the organization, Bookbinder manages the day-to-day business operations for SS&E's three sports franchises; the Spurs (NBA), Silver Stars (WNBA) and Rampage (American Hockey League). He also serves as the Silver Stars WNBA Governor.

Bookbinder was a key figure in bringing the Silver Stars to San Antonio. One of the first moves he made was naming Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil Chief Operating Officer of the Silver Stars. Together, they worked countless hours educating the Alamo community about women's basketball and on November 13, 2002, the WNBA awarded San Antonio with a WNBA franchise.

The Silver Stars enjoyed tremendous success in their first year in the WNBA. San Antonio ranked second in the league in sponsorship support and third in attendance, averaging 10,384 fans per contest. The Silver Stars were also recognized by the WNBA for their community involvement in 2003. Adrienne Goodson was awarded the WNBA's Off-Season Community Assist Award and the Silver Stars organization received a Macy's Heart and Soul Award from the American Cancer Society for their tireless efforts in their fight against breast cancer.

Bookbinder's success doesn't stop with the Silver Stars. The Spurs have enjoyed tremendous success in attendance, broadcasting, sponsorship support and community awareness during Bookbinder's leadership. During his tenure the Spurs have been one of the NBA's highest attended franchises; averaging 18,650 fans per game over the past 15 seasons.

In February 2004, the Spurs were named the best franchise in professional sports in ESPN The Magazine's Ultimate Standings. The team was judged by fans in eight categories including, fan relations, bang for the buck, ownership, players, stadium experience, affordability, coaching and winning. Bookbinder, along with SS&E management and staff use the same philosophy with all three of their franchises: in order to have the best fans in sports you have to deliver the best team in sports in all aspects and be a positive influence within your community.

Upon his arrival in San Antonio, Bookbinder created a community relations department and the non-profit Spurs Foundation, an organization designed to give back to the community. Since its formation in 1988 the Foundation has generated over $6 million in cash and in-kind contributions for area youth programs. In addition, he has worked with area school superintendents to establish several programs to motivate students in the areas of self-worth, attendance and drug and substance abuse education. The Spurs' Project GOAL received the 1994 Human and Civil Rights Award from the Texas State Teacher's Association and in 2000, the team received the Pro Team Community Award from the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame as the top team in all major league sports in serving the community.

Born and raised in Miami – and a 1974 graduate of the University of Florida – Bookbinder started his career in the sports business in 1976 as the Western Regional Manager for Professional Sports Publications. He has 22 years of experience in the NBA, serving in top management positions with the Dallas Mavericks, San Diego Clippers and Denver Nuggets. Prior to joining the Spurs, Bookbinder was the Director of Corporate Development for Raycom Sports.

Since coming to San Antonio, Bookbinder has been very involved in helping to enhance the sports industry in the Alamo City as a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation. He played a major role in the creation of the Alamo Bowl and served as the president of the San Antonio Bowl Association in 1994. He continues to serve on the Bowl's Board of Directors.

In 1991, Bookbinder developed SAOne, Inc., the Spurs special event management company that has brought numerous NFL preseason, NCAA football and basketball events as well as NHL hockey to San Antonio. He was also instrumental in San Antonio's successful hosting of the 1996 NBA All-Star Game and served on the San Antonio Local Organizing Committee for the 1998 NCAA Final Four. Bookbinder has served on the National Board of Trustees for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is a member of the Board of Directors for the San Antonio Greater Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a member of the Advisory Board of the San Antonio chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and serves on the board of the American Football Coaches Foundation. He also serves as a Jr. Achievement volunteer teacher at Reagan High School.

Bookbinder is married to the former Tammy Teaff, whose father Grant is the former Head Football Coach at Baylor University and is currently the Executive Director of the American Football Coaches Association. They have two children, a 17-year-old son, Josh and a 14-year-old daughter, Jessy.

RICK PYCH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/FINANCE & CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT/SPURS SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER/SBC CENTER

In his role as Executive Vice President of Finance and Corporate Development for Spurs Sports & Entertainment Rick Pych is responsible for all financial, facility administrative, corporate planning and development issues on behalf of the organization and ownership. Previously, from 1993 until being named Executive Vice President in January of 2000, Pych handled all accounting, tax, legal, and technology matters as Chief Financial Officer for the Spurs.

A primary focus for Pych since 1995 has been the Spurs' new home – the SBC Center. Pych brought the need for a new Spurs playing facility to focus to the Spurs' owners in 1995. He started on a development, financial and operating study for the SBC Center back in 1995. He brought together a team of architects and Spurs personnel in 1998 to formulate a design for the SBC Center. After winning the NBA championship in the Spring of 1999, the Spurs were successful in a referendum vote in November of 1999 that provided public financial support for the construction of the arena.

After the election, Pych was named Chief Development Officer for the SBC Center. From July 1999 through August of 2000, he led the negotiations with Bexar County and other governmental entities that secured arena development and operating rights agreements for the Spurs. Pych also negotiated a $90 million loan with a syndicate of banks which provided a funding source for the Spurs contribution to the project as well as refinancing existing franchise debt. Since the SBC Center opening in October of 2002, Pych continues to oversee the operations of the SBC Center.

Pych also led the organization's efforts to bring hockey to the SBC Center. In March of 2002, after exploring a variety of options, Pych negotiated an agreement with the Florida Panthers to form a joint venture and bring their American Hockey League affiliate to San Antonio. On May 6, 2002, the AHL Board of Governors approved the joint ventures membership application for the San Antonio Rampage. Pych represents SS&E in the joint venture with the Panthers on all hockey operations matters. Pych also represents both organizations on the AHL Board of Governors.

Pych has 32 years of financial and business management experience. He is a certified public accountant and started his career in public accounting with Price Waterhouse (now known as Price Waterhouse Coopers). He then went on to work at a former client in investment/trade banking and real estate investment, which led to his relocation to Texas in 1987.

Prior to joining the Spurs he acted as Executive Vice President of Finance and Marketing for the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival. As a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation, Pych was active in the organization's efforts to bring major sporting events to San Antonio including the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993, the 1995 National Senior Olympics, the 1998 and 2004 NCAA Men's Final Four and the 2002 NCAA Women's Final Four.

Pych is a graduate of Fairfield University. His wife, Marilou, is the Director of Finance for SONY Semiconductor Company of America. They have a 17 year-old son, Zack, who attends the Hotchkiss School in Connecticut where he plays football and hockey.

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil serves as the Chief Operating Officer and Alternate Governor for the San Antonio Silver Stars. Now in her fourth year with Spurs Sports and Entertainment, Davis-Wrightsil manages the day-to-day business and basketball operations for the Silver Stars.

Davis-Wrightsil spent her first two years with SS&E working to create awareness and excitement about women's basketball in the community and was the driving force behind the effort of bringing the Silver Stars to the Alamo City.

Supported by the tireless efforts of the Spurs management, front office employees, basketball staff and coaches, the Silver Stars launched their inaugural season in the SBC Center in May 2003.

During the Silver Stars' first season, while overseeing the business operations, Davis-Wrightsil worked countless hours with the sales staff to bring in revenues through the Silver Stars corporate underwriting program and ticket sales efforts. Furthermore, Davis-Wrightsil worked with local Breast Health organizations in San Antonio in their effort in raising awareness and money in the fight against breast cancer.

In addition to her business duties, Davis-Wrightsil is responsible for overseeing the basketball operations staff, player acquisitions and post-athletic player development. She orchestrated the first trade in Silver Stars history adding Gwen Jackson and Sylvia Crawley to the Silver Stars roster from the Indiana Fever. This past off-season Davis-Wrightsil hired Dee Brown and his staff to lead the Silver Stars into the 2004 season, worked out a trade with the Connecticut Sun to bring Shannon Johnson to San Antonio, selected LaToya Thomas in the 2004 WNBA Dispersal Draft and signed the highly touted European Player of the Year, Agnieszka Bibrzycka.

A San Antonio native, Davis-Wrightsil was a standout player at John Jay High School before moving up I-35 to Austin where she enjoyed an All-American collegiate career at The University of Texas. As a freshman she led the Longhorns to a perfect 34-0 record and the 1986 NCAA Championship, being named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player. She was recognized as the NCAA Player of the Year as both a sophomore and senior, winning the prestigious Naismith Award both seasons.

After graduation, Davis-Wrightsil continued playing professional ball internationally for seven years in Italy, Japan, and Turkey. In 1997, she returned stateside and played three seasons in the American Basketball League before joining the WNBA Phoenix Mercury team in 1999. In 1992, as the second-leading scorer on the 1992 Bronze Medal-Winning U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team in Barcelona, Spain, Davis-Wrightsil averaged 13 points per game and set the team record for 3-point shooting percentage. While playing for the United States National Team, Davis-Wrightsil was a gold medalist in the Goodwill Games (1986), World Championships (1986, 1994), and Pan American Games (1988).

Davis-Wrightsil has been inducted into the Texas Basketball Hall of Fame, the University of Texas Hall of Honors, the San Antonio Women's Hall of Fame, the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame, the Texas Black Sports Hall of Fame and was named one of San Antonio Business Journal's 40 under 40 Rising Stars in 2001. In addition, she was named Southwest Conference Athlete of the Decade for the 1980's and was a finalist for the prestigious ATHENA Award in 2003.

She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Spurs Foundation, KLRN TV, Southwest Mental Health Center, USA Basketball, and the Express News Community Advisory Board (2002-2003). Davis-Wrightsil is also the founder of TEAM PRESS Foundation – whose mission is to empower girls through sports by providing positive role models, encouraging literacy, goal setting and community volunteerism; and creating opportunities for girls to participate in basketball as a summertime activity. In its two-year existence, TEAM PRESS has been successful in securing nine full scholarships for girls in the program.

Davis-Wrightsil earned a bachelor's degree in communications from the University of Texas in 1989. She and her husband, Jerald, have been happily married for 12 years.

DEE BROWN
HEAD COACH

Silver Stars Head Coach Dee Brown brings a wealth of basketball experience to San Antonio having played 12 seasons in the NBA, working in the Orlando Magic's front office and coaching the WNBA's Orlando Miracle in 2002. He is responsible for player development and directing the team on the floor.

Brown was named head coach of the Silver Stars on October 30, 2003. Prior to making the move to San Antonio he spent four years in Orlando. He played two seasons with Magic (2000-02) before trading in his sneakers for a clipboard.

On April 5, 2002, Brown was named head coach and general manger of the WNBA Orlando Miracle. In his only season at the helm, Brown led the Miracle to a 16-16 record and tied the franchise record for most wins in a season. He also orchestrated the team's first ever trade as he added Clarisse Machanguana to the roster from the Charlotte Sting for a first round selection in the 2002 WNBA Draft. Brown also made the first-ever trade that involved a Miracle player sending Elaine Powell to Detroit in exchange for Wendy Palmer.

During the 2002-03 off-season the Miracle relocated to Connecticut while Brown stayed in Orlando and joined the Magic as the director of player development. In this position, he worked closely with the basketball and business operations departments in overseeing all of the player programs and also developed leadership support to the organization and team's basketball players as it related to both organizational goals and player development.

A 12-year NBA veteran, Brown was a 1990 first round draft pick (19th overall). He spent seven seasons (1990-97) with the Boston Celtics where he was a team captain for four years, three seasons (1997-2000) with the Toronto Raptors where he served as the team captain all three years and two seasons (2000-02) with the Magic. During his NBA career, Brown averaged 11.1 points, 2.6 rebounds, 3.7 assists in 608 games, and led the NBA in three-point field goals made (135) and attempted (349) during the 1998-99 campaign. For his career he saw action in 31 playoff games, and averaged 10.3 ppg, 2.8 rpg and 3.6 apg.

In 1991, he was named to the 1990-91 NBA All-Rookie First Team after averaging 8.7 ppg and 4.2 apg during his first season with the Celtics, and was third in voting for Rookie of the Year. The following season he was crowned Slam Dunk champion at the 1991 All-Star Weekend in Charlotte.

After retiring in 2002 Brown joined the Magic's corporate office as a special assistant to Orlando Magic Operations where he worked closely with the basketball operations, marketing, corporate sales, community relations and broadcasting departments.

Brown, 34, resides in Windermere, FL and is married to Tammy Brown. They have three daughters, Alexis (9), Alyssa (7) and Alanni (1). Tammy is no stranger to women's basketball as she played for American International College. Brown and his wife are the founders of The Tammy and Dee Brown Foundation, established in December of 1997 to support educational programs, which encourage strengthening the bonds between parents and children. Brown is a Special Limited Partner with Grace Venture Partners, a firm which specializes in providing equity financing for the commercialization of military technologies. Brown also serves on the Board of Directors for the UCF Foundation, the Boys and Girls Clubs of Central Florida and the National Advisory Board for the DeVos Sport Management Program at the University of Central Florida. He was also named a YMCA 2002 Black Achiever.

Brown earned his B.S. degree in mathematics and computer science from Jacksonville University in 1990 while playing four years with the Dolphins basketball team.

SHELL DAILEY

ASSISTANT COACH

Shell Dailey is in her second stint as an assistant coach with the Silver Stars. She originally joined the Silver Stars coaching staff on April 3, 2003 as assistant coach and was later named interim head coach midway through the 2003 season. While at the helm Dailey led the team to a 6-6 record. Prior to joining the Silver Stars Dailey had spent the past four seasons as an assistant coach for the University of South Carolina Gamecocks.

During her tenure at the University of South Carolina she helped lead the Gamecocks to the NCAA tournament twice, including an appearance in the Elite 8 during the 2001-02 season. In addition to her coaching duties, Dailey was responsible for recruiting, scouting opponents, helping coordinate the team's marketing strategies and scheduling the team's community service appearances. Prior to joining the Gamecocks coaching staff, she served as an assistant coach for the Nashville Noise of the American Basketball League (ABL) in 1998 and the University of Texas A&M during the 1997-98 season.

No stranger to Texas, Dailey began her coaching career in 1992 as an assistant coach at Texas Christian University. The following season she was promoted to head coach where she guided the team for the next three seasons.

Dailey played four years of collegiate basketball at the University of Texas from 1981-85. Led by Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame member and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame member, Head Coach Jody Conradt, the Longhorns participated in postseason play in all four of Dailey's seasons. During her freshman year, the team reached the AIAW Final Four, losing to Rutgers in the Championship Game. Over the next three seasons, Dailey helped the Longhorns to two Elite 8 appearances and one Sweet 16 berth. During her collegiate career, the Longhorns won four Southwest Conference championships and never lost a conference game. Named as the team captain her senior year, Dailey also received numerous academic rewards and graduated with a bachelor's degree in advertising management.

A native of McKinney, TX, Dailey was a standout high school basketball player at McKinney High School where she was named a second-team all-state choice and a three-time district MVP. She and husband, Eric, recently welcomed their first child, Eric Lavell Dailey Jr. on January 15, 2004.

ASSISTANT COACH

Vonn Read joins the Silver Stars coaching staff this season after spending five years with the Orlando Magic in the Advanced Scouting Department.

Read spent his first two seasons with the Magic in the Video Scouting Department, helping break down video for game preparation. His last three seasons he served as an advanced scout for the Magic, preparing scouting reports for the coaching staff during the regular season and the playoffs. Read also served as an assistant coach for the Orlando Magic's Summer League team in 2001.

This isn't the first time that Read has worked alongside Silver Stars Head Coach Dee Brown. During the summer of 2002, Read served as an assistant coach on Brown's staff with the Orlando Miracle. After the Miracle relocated to Connecticut in 2003, Read continued working in the WNBA as an advanced scout with the Charlotte Sting.

Read also served as an assistant coach with Phoenix Mercury under Head Coach Cheryl Miller during the 2000 WNBA season. Read helped lead the Mercury to the playoffs and a franchise best 20-12 record.

Before making the move to Phoenix, Read spent two years (1997-99) as an assistant women's basketball coach at Spelman College (Atlanta, GA). At Spelman, Read was in charge of advanced opponent scouting as well as practice planning and recruiting.

During his two years at Spelman, Read also worked for Turner Sports Broadcasting as senior archivist and production assistant for Turner's NBA telecasts. He also worked the 1998 Goodwill Games in New York and the 1998 NBA Draft in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Read graduated with a bachelor's degree in political science/pre-law in 1997 from Clark Atlanta University where he also played tennis. Read also served in the United States Army from 1989-93 at Fort Drum, New York and Fort Lee, Virginia.

Read has an 11-year-old daughter named April.

JEFFERSON SWEENEY

VIDEO/TRAVEL COORDINATOR

Jefferson Sweeney is in his second season with the Silver Stars. As the video/travel coordinator, Sweeney manages game tape retrieval and editing used in scouting WNBA and collegiate games and assists with scouting and evaluating college talent for the WNBA Draft. In addition, he is responsible for all aspects of the team's travel.

Sweeney made the move to San Antonio from Salt Lake City where he spent three seasons with the Utah Starzz. In 2002, Sweeney was named the Director of Video and Travel Services after serving two seasons as video coordinator for the Starzz. During his time with the Starzz, Sweeney spent three and a half seasons as the Utah Jazz video intern.

When he is not planning out the Silver Stars next road trip or breaking down game film, Sweeney is back home in Utah where he is the Video Coordinator for the Utah Jazz during the WNBA off-season.

A native of Hamilton Ontario Canada, Sweeney graduated from Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colorado in 1998 with a degree in mass communication, and was a member of the football team from 1997-98.

KEVIN SEMANS

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Kevin Semans joined the Silver Stars staff in March 2003. As the athletic trainer, Semans is responsible for the medical and health care needs of the players. Prior to joining the Silver Stars, Semans worked closely with former Utah Starzz athletic trainer Moe Forsyth and the rest of the team at the Bountiful Physical Therapy Clinic in Salt Lake City.

A graduate from the University of Tennessee in 1991, Semans is a certified athletic trainer. He played football for the Vols for two years and worked in the Lady Vols training room while he was getting his athletic training certification. Semans has worked with Olympic distance runners preparing for the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta as well as several major league pitchers during their off-season training programs.

During the Silver Stars off-season you can find him on the ski slopes of Brighton Ski Resort in Utah serving as a member of National Ski Patrol.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Patrice Arnold enters her second season with the Silver Stars, her first as the Strength and Conditioning Coach. She brings over five years of experience in nutrition, physical fitness and personal training to the Silver Stars. Arnold is skilled in all aspects of dietary supplementation, strength and endurance training, as well as cardio performance enhancement.

As the team's Strength and Conditioning Coach, Arnold is responsible for developing and implementing a strength and conditioning program suited for each player. Arnold also assists the team during pre-game warm-ups and injury rehabilitation.

During the off-season Arnold spends her time as a personal trainer for Spectrum Health Club where she is responsible for designing personal fitness programs for individual clients. She is also the coach for the Alamo Force Volleyball Team.

Arnold is certified through the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM) and is a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Optimum Performance Trainer (OPT) and Personal Trainer (CPT). She recently received her Massage Therapy certification.

A native of San Antonio, Arnold graduated from the University of Incarnate Word in 1999 with a B.S. in nutrition.

DAVID SCHMIDT, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

One of the most active members of the San Antonio sports community, Dr. David Schmidt serves as the team physician for the Silver Stars, San Antonio Spurs and San Antonio Missions. In addition to his duties with the San Antonio professional teams, he is also the team physician for Trinity University and several local high schools.

Dr. Schmidt served as the Medical Director of the 1989 AAU Junior Olympics and the 1995 US Senior Sports Classic. In 1993, he was the Medical Director for the US Olympic Festival in San Antonio. He also served on the medical staffs of the 1994 Olympic Festival in St. Louis, the 1995 World University Games in Japan, and the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

A member of the Olympic Sports Medicine Society, Dr. Schmidt received his medical degree from The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio where he also completed his residency in Orthopaedic Surgery. After Fellowships in Sports Medicine in Sydney, Australia and Auckland, New Zealand, he entered private practice in San Antonio in 1986.

Dr. Schmidt is a Founding Board Member and past Chairman of the San Antonio Sports Foundation.

PAUL S. SAENZ, D.O.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Saenz is a native San Antonian who received his medical education at the Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine in Ft. Worth and performed his Family Practice training at Phoenix General Hospital. Upon completion of a sports medicine fellowship in Seattle, Washington, he returned to San Antonio in 1988 and established himself as the city's first Primary Care Sports Medicine specialist.

Dr. Saenz serves as a team physician for the NBA San Antonio Spurs, the WNBA Silver Stars, the San Antonio Missions Double A Baseball Club, and for USA boxing. He was appointed to the medical staff for the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta and was selected Chief Medical Officer for the sport of boxing at the 1998 Goodwill Games in New York City. He will serve as team physician for the USA Pentathlon in Athens, Greece at the 2004 Olympic Games. Dr. Saenz is board certified in Family Practice by the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians and in Sports Medicine by the American Osteopathic Academy of Sports Medicine.

TIMOTHY S. PALOMERA, M.D.

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Timothy Palomera, a native of San Antonio, serves as team physician for the Silver Stars, San Antonio Rampage and Trinity University, and is on the medical staff of the San Antonio Missions. Board certified in Family Medicine with a certificate of added qualification in Sports Medicine, Dr. Palomera also serves as a medical consultant for several area high schools. He was assistant to the Medical Director for the 2000 San Antonio Marathon and has served on the medical staff of the San Diego Marathon and the Texas Relays.

A graduate of the University of Texas Health Science Center and St. Mary's University, Dr. Palomera and his wife Christine have three energetic sons, Thomas, Joseph and Nathan.

ANDREW MONACO

RADIO/TV PLAY-BY-PLAY

Andrew Monaco enters his second season as the "Voice of the Silver Stars." During the off-season he serves as the radio and television play-by-play voice of the AHL's San Antonio Rampage. When he's not calling the action courtside, Monaco's working on his weekly column that runs on sasilverstars.com.

Monaco made the move to San Antonio after spending four seasons as the radio play-by-play announcer with the former WNBA Orlando Miracle. While in Orlando, Monaco hosted the WNBA's first-ever internet radio talk show "Miracle Courtside Conversation" and was the host of the Orlando Magic Radio Network. In addition, he did play-by-play on select Orlando Magic telecasts. He also served as the television play-by-play for the Orlando Solar Bears of the International Hockey League.

Monaco's radio and television play-by-play duties have included men's and women's college basketball, college football and college baseball for Sunshine Network and Fox Sports Net. He served as host/sideline reporter during the IHL playoffs and all-star games, then handled play-by-play for the 2001 event. He also hosted "Mercedes-Benz Florida Golf Scene," an hour-long golf show that aired monthly on the Sunshine Network.

Prior to joining RDV Sports, Monaco was the radio play-by-play announcer for the Orlando Cubs and Orlando SunRays baseball teams from 1990-1995. He was honored as the Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 1993.

Monaco and his wife, Laura, have a son, Drew (8), and a daughter, Gina (5).

FRAN HARRIS

TV ANALYST

Fran Harris is in her second season as TV analyst for the Silver Stars.

Harris was a member of the Houston Comets first WNBA Championship team in 1997 and played for the Utah Starzz in 1998. She served as the captain and played alongside Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil on the University of Texas' only national championship team in 1986.

A former ESPN, Lifetime Television and FOX Sports announcer, she's a screenwriter, television producer, filmmaker and the author or co-author of nine books including her most recent, Crashing Hollywood: How To Keep Your Integrity Up, Your Clothes On & Still Make It In Hollywood.

TERRY STEMBRIDGE JR.

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Terry Stembridge Jr. returns for his second season as the back-up radio play-by-play "Voice of the Silver Stars." Stembridge fills in when Andrew Monaco is calling the action for Silver Stars TV.

Stembridge began his broadcasting career as a student in 1992 as the "Voice of the Kilgore College Rangers." He later went on to serve as the play-by-play voice of the Arkansas State Indians during the 1997-98 seasons.

After a stint at Arkansas State, Stembridge started calling games at the professional level while also serving in various front office capacities. He has done play-by-play for the Minnesota Vikings, the Bossier City Battle Wings of the Arena Football League II, the Idaho Stampede of the Continental Basketball Association and the New Mexico Slam of the International Basketball Association.

Stembridge's father, Terry Stembridge Sr., was the long-time "Voice of the Spurs" during the 1970s and 1980s.

Stembridge is single and resides in Kilgore, Texas.

KRIS DAVIS

MEDIA SERVICES MANAGER

Kris Davis is in his second season as the Silver Stars media services manager. He was promoted to his current position after spending one season as the San Antonio Rampage's media services coordinator. He first joined Spurs Sports & Entertainment in the 2001-02 season as an intern for the San Antonio Spurs.

A graduate from Midwestern State University, Davis earned a degree in mass communications in 2001 where he served as a student assistant in the sports information department for two years.

During the off-season Davis enjoys attending Spurs and Rampage games and cruising all over the world. He and his wife, Cathi, have one dog, an adopted Chihuahua named Scrappy.

STEVE ZITO, CFE

VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Steve Zito has two decades of experience in public assembly facility management. Prior to being named the General Manager of the SBC Center in 2001, he spent eight years as Facility Manager for the Alamodome. His duties included overseeing all day-to-day operations for both the Alamodome and Nelson Wolff Municipal Baseball Stadium, one of the top minor league baseball venues in the nation.

Before moving to Texas, Zito served as the Executive Director of the Mid-Hudson Civic Center and McCANN Ice Arena in Poughkeepsie, New York and Assistant Director of the Portland Expo and Sports Complex in Portland, Maine. He was also involved in the overall redesign and conversion of an existing minor league baseball stadium and set up the operational logistics of an amphitheater in Old Orchard Beach, Maine.

Zito is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers, Major Arena Managers Association and UMASS Sports Management Alumni Association. He is a Speakers Bureau representative and an administrator for the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame. In 2002, he was awarded the designation of CFE – Certified Family Executive – from IAAM.

A Massachusetts native, Zito has a degree in Sport/Facility Management from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. He is also a graduate of the Oglebay Public Assembly Management School in Wheeling, West Virginia.

He and his wife, Debbie, have two children, Delaney and Zachry.

JOHN SPARKS

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

John Sparks served 20 years in the Navy before moving into the facility management business in 1997 as the Maintenance Operations Manager for the CNN Center in Atlanta. In 1999, he was named the Director of Building Operations for Philips Arena. With the experience of opening Philips Arena, Sparks was a natural choice to serve as the Assistant General Manager for the SBC Center.

He and his wife, Gail, have four children, William, Daniel, Katherine and Jonathon.

San Antonio's state-of-the-art arena opened in November 2002. The facility is home to the NBA Champion Spurs, AHL Rampage, WNBA Silver Stars, San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, concerts and family entertainment. Since opening, the SBC Center has experienced significant milestones including an NBA Championship, WNBA Silver Stars and AHL Rampage inaugural seasons, welcomed over 2.7 million guests, hosted over 200 diverse events such as George Strait, Sesame Street Live!, The Rolling Stones, 54th San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, Luciano Pavarotti, Miracle Match with John McEnroe and an HBO Latino Boxing event featuring Jesse James Leija.

The SBC Center is able to offer diverse events to the community and South Texas due in part to its various seating capabilities which range from a 3,000 theater setting to 18,500 basketball configuration.

The SBC Center's successful debut validated the arena's promise to offer San Antonio and South Texas: Something For Everyone.

Built in what architects call "ranch tech" style, the SBC Center is styled to present a sense of place, both inside and out. The external view, in addition to its distinctive architecture, features park-like landscaping that's both visually appealing and environmentally friendly. Inside, the design continues to capture the South Texas ambiance with festive colors and imaginative details.

Adding to the interior appeal is a $1 million collection of fine art produced by the direction of Chairman and CEO Peter Holt and Julianna Hawn Holt. Some of the collection carries a basketball theme – including George Cisneros' "Atomic Spur" sculpture edged in 100 feet of neon and covered in 2,640 twinkling lights.

"We are enormously proud of the SBC Center and what it brings to the community," said the Spurs' Holt. "We're proud to have been part of the effort. Now we can provide South Texas with some of the best sports and entertainment available anywhere in the U.S."

THE FOX

MASCOT

The Fox certainly wasn't born with a silver spoon. As a pup there were rough times, but big dreams. A career in the movies didn't last long. A part in The Fox and the Hound didn't pan out when it was found out what happens to the fox at the end of the movie. The Fox also tried to get a part in the movie Dances with Wolves, until it was discovered that it involved no dancing, and no wolves.

The Fox began a career in the WNBA on May 25, 2003, and has been entertaining at every Silver Stars home game since. The Fox's rookie year stats include averaging 2 hand walks per game, 4.2 dances per game, and 6.4 falls per game. But, with lots of hard work and training, The Fox wants to get that number up to 7 or 8 falls per game. Until then, you can see The Fox at the Silver Stars' home games, and appearing around town at various events. You can even book The Fox at your next event by calling (210) 444-5865.

Birthplace: FairFox, VA
High School: Fox Tech
College: USF (University of Silver Foxes)
Height: 3.45 tails tall
Weight: Before or After Dinner?
Position: Center of Attention
Career Highlights: Voted Most Likely To Cough up a Hairball
Won the MVP award in college (Most Valuable Paws)
Only mascot in the WNBA to dribble a basketball and saliva at the same time
First mascot in the WNBA to shoot both a behind the back basket, and silly string in one game
Holds the WNBA record for most t-shirts launched in one timeout

SBC STAR SQUAD

The SBC Star Squad is a high-energy male/female interactive team that performs at each San Antonio Silver Stars home game. The squad performs high-energy dance, stunt, and cheer routines throughout the game. In addition, the SBC Star Squad assists in all on-court promotions, as well as greeting fans at the door and helping with any premium giveaways.

Appealing to fans of all ages, the SBC Star Squad can often be seen pulling fans out of the stands to dance and interact on the court. After each game, select members of the SBC Star Squad sign autographs as fans exit the building, while the rest of the squad entertains children and adults alike with impromptu performances.

HAD A SECRET RECIPE, TOO

134 years ago, while other colonels were spending time blending herbs and spices, a man named Colonel T.C. Frost began gathering some ingredients of his own—ingredients like strong character, a firm handshake and deep-rooted Texas values. It was these ingredients (along with a lot of hard work) that became the philosophy for a financial institution that has endured the pages of Texas history since 1868. At times, it hasn't been easy. After all, over the course of history we've been through everything from a Great Depression to the bank crisis of the 80's. But time and time again, challenges like these have proved to us just how strong our values are. We're not in this for the short term. And that's exactly why the conservative, straight-forward banking techniques set by our founder continue to work today. Frost Bank is here to help communities in Texas prosper the same way our founder helped them over 130 years ago—and that's no secret at all.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

SILVER STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

A sports franchise is more than a collection of superb athletes – it is a partnership with its community.

We all benefit when kids succeed in school, when we have an educated workforce, when families are strengthened, when neighborhoods are safe and when everyone takes the time and responsibility to make our community an even better place to learn, live, and work. And through our partnership with the Spurs Foundation, the San Antonio Silver Stars help to create opportunities and enhance the quality of life for San Antonio and South Texas communities.

The Silver Stars connect with fans of all ages through extensive community and educational outreach. As we mark the eighth season of the WNBA and our second season in San Antonio, our players are committed and dedicated to our community. The San Antonio Silver Stars are honored to be your friends and neighbors and strive to be a catalyst for community spirit.

MIND. BODY. SPIRIT.

The WNBA Mind. Body. Spirit. program is the league's primary cause-related campaign focusing on four main components – nutrition, exercise, positive self-image and breast health awareness.

Throughout the year, Silver Stars players, coaches, and personnel will conduct clinics throughout the San Antonio community. "Shooting for the S.T.A.R.S.", aimed at teaching youth, primarily girls, basic elements of life, covers a variety of topics including manners/etiquette, self-esteem, nutrition and fitness, character values, resume writing, interviewing techniques, and other essential job skills.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The Silver Stars Breast Health Awareness program will focus on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. Team activities will include a Breast Health Awareness night, in-arena fundraisers and partnerships with area breast health non-profits including: Alamo Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society, Cancer Therapy and Research Center, Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Inc., and WINGS (Women Involved in Nurturing, Giving, Sharing, Inc.)

Breast health information will be distributed to fans during in-arena awareness nights and a breast health awareness public service announcement will air on nationally televised games and in-arena.

Once again, fans will have the opportunity to log onto WNBA.com to bid on their favorite item featured in the Breast Health Awareness Auction. All proceeds from these items, including games of HORSE with WNBA stars, All-Star memorabilia and WNBA autographed items, will benefit the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

SILVER STARS BOOK BASKETS

Each year, the Spurs Foundation partners with Scholastic, Inc. to donate hundreds of books to emergent readers. At selected home games, Silver Stars "Book Baskets" will open for young fans to stop by and pick up a new book. This literacy partnership reinforces the Silver Stars message of READ TO ACHIEVE!

READ TO ACHIEVE

Through the WNBA's exciting initiative devoted to children's literacy — READ TO ACHIEVE — the Silver Stars unite their leading assets to promote the value of reading, as well as encourage families and adults to read regularly with young children.

Here in San Antonio, the Silver Stars implement READ TO ACHIEVE through our educational programming, read aloud events with Silver Stars players and coaches and free book donations. It is especially important for San Antonio to embrace literacy as according to the 2002 National Adult Literacy Survey, 58% of San Antonio's population is functionally illiterate, which means that this group cannot read or comprehend a simple food label or bus schedule.

BROWN DODGE-CHRYSLER JEEP STORY TIME EVENTS

For the second straight year, Brown Dodge-Chrysler Jeep in Devine will give the Silver Stars the stage to speak to children about the importance of reading and improving their reading skills. Silver Stars players will read their favorite books to the public, showing the exciting adventures that can be experienced through reading.

THE SILVER STARS HAVE READING ALL-STARS

The following members of the San Antonio community have lent their support to READ TO ACHIEVE and will be a part of the 2004 Silver Stars All-Star Reading Team: Chief Operating Officer of the Silver Stars Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil, Silver Stars Head Coach Dee Brown, Silver Stars players, San Antonio City Manager Terry Brechtel, Paralympic Gold-Medal Athlete Ross Davis, San Antonio Mayor Ed Garza, World Champion Boxer Jessie James Leija, Bexar County Sheriff Ralph Lopez, San Antonio Chief of Police Albert Ortiz, Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff, Spurs forward Tim Duncan and his wife Amy, Spurs legend David Robinson, Spurs forwards Bruce Bowen and Malik Rose, the Spurs Silver Dancers, the Coyote, the Fox, members of the Spurs Sports & Entertainment staff, and Chairman and CEO of Spurs Sports & Entertainment Peter Holt.

SILVER STARS PLAYERS SHARE THEIR FAVORITE BOOKS

During the 2004 WNBA season, Silver Stars players will again host on court book exchanges with children randomly selected from the fans at various home games. Each child selected to participate in these center court pre-tip book exchanges will receive an autographed copy of a Silver Star's favorite childhood book.

HIGH FIVE READERS PRESENTED BY SACU, KB HOME, RAGU, H-E-B & MAGIC 105.3

During the 2003-04 school year, an exciting four-week reading challenge rewarded first through fifth graders with great prizes, including 2,500 Silver Stars, Spurs, and Rampage tickets. Designed to challenge students to develop good reading habits, students competed individually and as a class in this well-received school-year challenge.

THE SILVER STARS AND WHATABURGER WANT WINNERS...IN THEIR CIRCLE

During the 2004 Silver Stars regular season, students from San Antonio Area Boys & Girls Clubs will be inducted into the "Whataburger Winner's Circle" — a program that recognizes hardworking Bexar County middle school students who display good citizenship and strive to do their best in and out of the classroom, and then rewards them with free Silver Stars tickets, in-game recognition and dinner from Whataburger to one middle school student at each home game.

WHATABURGER "WHAT'CHA READING" SUMMER READING PROGRAM

In its second year, the Silver Stars and Whataburger will reward more than 1,000 Bexar County children for accomplishments in reading through the "What'cha Reading" program. Every child who earns the What'cha Reading achievement certificate has the opportunity to enter a drawing for three incredible prizes courtesy of Whataburger: 1) limousine service, dinner and four floor tickets to a 2004 Silver Stars home game 2) four Silver Stars Suite passes to a selected 2004 home game, or 3) one community center Reading Time-Out with a Silver Stars player. Additionally, every What'cha Reading certificate includes a coupon good for one free Justaburger Kid's Meal.

SPURS/PIZZA HUT DRUG-FREE YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Each winter, the Spurs Foundation funds and oversees the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, presented by Diamond Shamrock. For 14 years, the league has offered nearly 20,000 at-risk girls and boys the opportunity to play basketball, improve their athletic skills and learn the importance of teamwork, cooperation, sportsmanship and discipline in a drug-free and safe environment. All participants are also members of the Jr. NBA and Jr. WNBA programs.

SAN ANTONIO NIGHT HOOPS

An extension of the Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, San Antonio Night Hoops, presented by the Spurs Foundation, is a summer basketball league designed exclusively for teenagers at selected San Antonio Recreation Centers. This program offers more than 900 teens an opportunity to improve their basketball skills and learn important life skills in specialized clinics while in a drug-free social environment. All members of San Antonio Night Hoops are also members of the Jr. NBA and Jr. WNBA.

SILVER STARS BASKETBALL CAMP

The San Antonio Silver Stars invite girls ages 8-18 to experience and learn from the Stars winning attitude in this summer's basketball camps. The Silver Stars will offer two camp sessions in July, and each session is five full days. Get ready to be trained by the pros in fundamentals, strategies, and drills. No previous basketball experience is necessary. Sign up now and receive the attention you need to really improve your basketball skills. For more information and a free brochure, please call (210) 444-5021 or visit www.sasilverstars.com.

REACHING OUT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Silver Stars Care...

- Annually, Spurs Sports & Entertainment and the Spurs Foundation support more than 1,600 different area organizations with in-kind or cash contributions. These in-kind donations (tickets, autographed memorabilia, appearances, etc.) are used to raise thousands of dollars for charitable causes in the San Antonio area.
- More than 160,000 incentives, which include books, tickets, certificates, scholarships, t-shirts, and player visits are distributed through the Spurs Sports & Entertainment education programs each year to inspire a myriad of student achievements.
- Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $7.2 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children through organizations that provide basic, recreational, and medical needs.
- The Silver Stars' educational outreach programs address those youth issues rated most important by local professionals. As part of our READ TO ACHIEVE and Mind.Body.Spirit. initiatives, these programs focus on student literacy, positive self image, healthy and fit families, and basic life skills.

THE SPURS FOUNDATION

The nonprofit 501(c)(3) Spurs Foundation was established to generate goodwill and financial support for economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The Spurs Foundation's volunteer board includes fans, community leaders, former Spurs players and representatives from the corporate and civic sectors.

Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $7.2 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children. During the 2002-03 season, the Spurs Foundation donated more than $900,000 in cash toward youth programming, grants, scholarships and community tickets.

Annually, proceeds from fundraising efforts enable the Spurs Foundation to:

- Award more than 14,500 Silver Stars, Rampage and Spurs community tickets through multiple school-based student incentive programs
- Invest $100,000 in programming to benefit area youth
- Award $100,000 in grants to organizations that work with and on behalf of young people
- Ensure that nearly 20,000 youth participate in the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, presented by Diamond Shamrock — Devin Brown, San Antonio Spurs Guard, played in this league and is the Honorary Commissioner
- Fund $58,500 in scholarships to deserving area youth
- Team up with the Tim Duncan Foundation to recognize children who demonstrate integrity, respect, dependability, fairness, caring and civic responsibility through the Tim Duncan Character Program.

SPURS FOUNDATION GRANTS

Each year, the Spurs Foundation awards grants to nonprofit organizations seeking funding for programs for disadvantaged youth in South Texas. Grant disbursement of more than $106,000 was awarded in October 2003. Four of the nonprofit children's organizations are then selected by the Spurs Foundation's volunteer Board of Directors to become Spurs Foundation's "Featured Charities." During 2003-04 season, the following youth organizations received year long publicity in addition to their grants: Alamo Children's Advocacy Center, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Dare to Love and the San Antonio Area Food Bank.

AUCTION & RAFFLE DONATIONS

Spurs Sports & Entertainment and the Spurs Foundation make nearly 1,600 donations or in-kind contributions to nonprofits, including churches, charities and schools each year. These donations, including tickets and autographed memorabilia, raise thousands of dollars for charitable causes in the San Antonio area. To request a donation, please send a letter on your organization's letterhead to the Donations Coordinator, One SBC Center, San Antonio, TX 78219 or send by fax to (210) 444-5875. Requests should be made at least four weeks prior to the event and include all information concerning the event.

A FEELING OF COMMUNITY BEGINS AT HOME...GAMES

Thousands of fans will experience Silver Stars home games through the Community Ticket Donation program. Each year, through the underwriting support of the Spurs Foundation, players and sponsors, thousands of tickets are awarded so that underserved children and their families can experience the excitement of WNBA basketball. To request a ticket donation for your nonprofit organization please send a letter on your organization's letterhead to the Donations Coordinator, One SBC Center, San Antonio, TX 78219 or send by fax to (210) 444-5875. Requests should be made at least four weeks prior to the event and include all information concerning the event.

STARS OF THE MOMENT

The Spurs Sports & Entertainment Family always has time for the community. Current Silver Stars, Rampage, and Spurs players, former players, coaches, mascots, management and other team representatives annually attend a host of community events, school assemblies, hospital visits, nonprofit events and fundraising benefits. Each year, the Spurs Sports & Entertainment family makes more than 1,200 community appearances. For information on having a Silver Stars representative participate in your event, please send a written request by fax to 210-444-5875 or by mail to the Appearance Coordinator, One SBC Center, San Antonio, TX 78219. Requests should be made at least four weeks prior to the event and include all information concerning the event.

SILVER STARS FANS ARE THE BEST: San Antonio ranked third in WNBA in home attendance during the 2003 season...the Silver Stars drew 176,526 fans over 17 home games, including a season-high 15,593 vs. Seattle on 5/24, for an average of 10,384...Washington led the league in attendance drawing in 238,710 fans over 17 home games for an average of 14,042...New York was a close second having 212,346 fans attend their 17 home games for an average of 12,491...the Connecticut Sun, the other franchise to relocate this past offseason, ranked last in the league in home attendance averaging 6,025 over the span of 17 home games.

SILVER STARS AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS: Although the Silver Stars finished the season just 12-22, their tenacity on defense was not lacking...San Antonio ranked among the Top 3 in four defensive categories...the Silver Stars finished first in the league in opponent's field goal percentage allowing foes to shoot just .398 (867-2,176) from the field...San Antonio finished the season ranked second in the WNBA holding opponents to a .309 (149-482) shooting percentage from three-point range...the Silver Stars also had command on the boards finishing third in the league in rebounding averaging 33.7 rebounds per game...with Margo Dydek manning the middle the Silver Stars finished the season ranked first in blocked shots (4.91 bpg) as well.

60 AND UNDER: When the Silver Stars held their opponents to 60 points or less during the 2003 season they had a 7-1 record...however, when the Silver Stars failed to score 60 or more point they were 0-9.

45-49 PERCENT IS THE KEY: When the Silver Stars shot between 45-49 percent good things usually happened...the Silver Stars were undefeated going 6-0 when the team shot 45-49 percent...San Antonio was just 6-20 when it shot below 45 percent and lost its only game when the team shot better than 50 percent.

WINNING BIG: The Silver Stars 69-52 defeat over the Sparks on 8/9 was their largest margin of victory this season, 17 points...of the Silver Stars 12 victories this season, six were by 10 or more points.

HOLDING ON IN THE SECOND HALF: When the Silver Stars took a lead into the locker room at halftime chances were they already had the game won...when the Silver Stars went into halftime with the lead they boasted a 7-2 record...on the other hand when San Antonio trailed at halftime its record was just 5-20.

GETTING TO THE LINE: With Margo Dydek and Marie Ferdinand driving to the hoop every time they had a chance, its no wonder the Silver Stars ranked second in the WNBA in free throws made and attempted...San Antonio made 537 free throws while attempting 736...Detroit led the league in makes with 624 and attempts with 882.

GET THAT OUT OF HERE: San Antonio ranked first in the WNBA in blocked shots averaging 4.91 blocks per game during the 2003 WNBA season...Margo Dydek led the league in blocks for the sixth consecutive year averaging 2.91 blocks per game...a member of the Silver Stars has led the league in blocks in each of the seven seasons the WNBA has been in existence...Elena Baranova led the league in 1997 and Dydek has led the league in blocks for the past six seasons.

BENCH VS. STARTERS: The Silver Stars starters accounted for 80.0 percent of the team's total offense (1,772/2,215), while the bench was responsible for just 20.0 percent (443/2,215) of the team's offense...the Silver Stars bench scored 20 or more points in five games during the 2003 season ...on average San Antonio's starters were responsible for 52.1 points per game, while the Silver Stars bench dished in 13.0 points per game.

POINTS IN THE PAINT: The Silver Stars spent a lot of their time offensively in the paint with 7-2 Margo Dydek in the middle and Marie Ferdinand slashing to the basket every time she had a chance...that's why San Antonio scored 49.4 percent of its points in the paint...the Silver Stars scored 1,094 of their 2,215 points in the paint...San Antonio outscored their opponents in the paint in 18 of 34 games and 1,094 to 1,016 overall.

BATTLING ON THE BOARDS: With the dynamic duo of Gwen Jackson and Margo Dydek, it's not hard to figure out why the Silver Stars ranked third in the league in rebounding during the 2003 WNBA season...San Antonio averaged 33.7 boards a game while Dydek finished tied for ninth in the WNBA pulling down 7.4 rebounds a game...Gwen Jackson ranked second among rookies averaging 6.2 rebounds a game.

TEAM LEADERS: Marie Ferdinand led the Silver Stars in scoring during the 2003 season averaging 13.8 points per game...Ferdinand also ranked first on the team and fourth overall in the WNBA with 1.71 steals per game...Margo Dydek led the team and ranked tied for ninth in the league in rebounding averaging 7.4 rebounds a game...her 2.91 blocks led the team and earned her the WNBA blocked shots title for the sixth consecutive year...Dydek also led the team in shooting 45.1 percent (156-346) from the field...Jennifer Azzi led the way in assists averaging 3.3 per game...Azzi also led the team in three-point shooting connecting 40.2 percent (39-97) of her attempts beyond the arc...Adrienne Goodson led the team in free throw shooting connecting on 81-of-102 attempts to put her at 79.4 percent on the season.

2002 SEASON NOTES

- Utah made its second consecutive trip to the playoffs in 2002 when they knocked off the Houston Comets in the first round, including the first ever double overtime game in WNBA playoff history. The Starzz bowed out in the Western Conference Finals to the eventual 2002 WNBA Champion L.A. Sparks.
- Natalie Williams etched her name into the WNBA record books when she became the first player to record a 20-20 game, scoring 22 points and grabbing 20 boards against Sacramento on June 22.
- Marie Ferdinand and Adrienne Goodson were both selected to represent the Starzz at the league's annual All-Star Game in Washington D.C.
- Margo Dydek had one of her best seasons leading the league in blocked shots for the fifth consecutive season (3.57 bpg) and averaging 13.1 points and 8.7 rebounds (third in the league) per game

2001 SEASON NOTES
- Utah finished in third place in the Western Conference and secured its first ever playoff spot. The Starzz lost to the Sacramento Monarchs in the first round.
- Margo Dydek put on a record breaking performance, as she notched the first triple-double in Starzz history and only the second triple-double in WNBA history with 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots on June 7 vs. Orlando. Her 10 blocked shots also broke her own WNBA record of nine that was set on Aug. 6, 1998.
- Natalie Williams was selected for the third consecutive year to represent the Starzz at the WNBA All-Star Game, but was unable to play due to injury. Williams led the way for the Starzz in both scoring (14.2 ppg) and rebounding (9.9 rpg, second in the league).
- Jennifer Azzi set the WNBA's single season record in three-point field goal percentage shooting 51.4% from behind the three-point arc. She also finished second in the league in minutes played (37.3 mpg), third in the league in free throw percentage (91.7%) and fourth in the league in assists (5.3 apg).
- Margo Dydek continued to dominate the league in blocked shots averaging 3.53 bpg. She also recorded the 400th block of her career on Aug. 13 versus Los Angeles.
- Rookie Marie Ferdinand also finished ranked among the league's best as she shot 49.3% from the field (seventh in the league).

1999 SEASON NOTES

- Natalie Williams became the first Utah player to earn WNBA Player of the Week Honors for the period ending July 11. In addition, Williams was selected to represent the Starzz in the first ever WNBA All-Star Game. She also became the first Utah player selected as a member of the All-WNBA First Team.
- For the third consecutive season Margo Dydek led the WNBA in blocked shots per game averaging 2.41 bpg.
- On July 6, 1999 the Utah Starzz defeated the Detroit Shock by a score of 104-94 in double overtime. The 104 points the Starzz put up still stands as a franchise record for the most points scored in a game (regulation or overtime). Natalie Williams tied Wendy Palmer's mark of 31 points in a game and Debbie Black handed out a franchise high 11 assists in the game.

1998 SEASON NOTES

- The Starzz selected Margo Dydek with the first overall selection in the 1998 WNBA Draft. The move would pay off as Dydek led the Starzz in rebounding, blocks and minutes during the 1998 season.
- Margo Dydek made WNBA history when she recorded a league record nine blocked shots against the Cleveland Rockers on Aug. 6, 1998. Dydek finished the season leading the league on blocked shots with 3.8 per game.
- Wendy Palmer turned in two of the greatest scoring performances in Utah Starzz history during the 1998 season. On July 8, Palmer tallied 30 points vs. Charlotte in a 69-77 loss vs. Charlotte. Later that season she eclipsed the 30-point plateau again scoring 31 points in a 81-71 win over Sacramento on August 12. Her 31-point performance still stands tied for the highest point total for a Starzz/Silver Stars player in franchise history.

1997 SEASON NOTES

- Dena Head and Wendy Palmer became the first two draft picks of the Utah Starzz when they were selected in the first and second rounds of the WNBA's Elite Draft on Feb. 27, 1997.
- Utah made its basketball debut on June 21, 1997 when they hosted the Sacramento Monarchs at the Delta Center. The opening night lineup included Wendy Palmer, Deborah Carter, Karen Booker, Lady Hardmon and Tammi Reiss. The Monarchs handed the Starzz a 70-60 loss. Utah recorded its first win in franchise history two nights later, beating the L.A. Sparks 102-89.

KEY DATES IN UTAH STARZZ HISTORY

OCTOBER 30, 1996
Utah is one of eight cities selected as one of the WNBA's charter franchises to begin operations in 1997.

JUNE 21, 1997
Utah made its basketball debut when they hosted the Sacramento Monarchs at the Delta Center. The opening night lineup included Wendy Palmer, Deborah Carter, Karen Booker, Lady Hardmon and Tammi Reiss. The Monarchs handed the Starzz a 70-60 loss. Utah recorded its first win in franchise history two nights later, beating the L.A. Sparks 102-89.

JULY 11, 1999
Natalie Williams becomes the first Utah player to earn WNBA Player of the Week Honors for the period ending July 11.

JULY 7, 2001
Margo Dydek puts on a record breaking performance, as she notched the first triple double in Starzz history and only the second triple double in WNBA history with 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots. Her 10 blocked shots also broke her own WNBA record of nine that was set on Aug. 6, 1998.

AUGUST 17, 2001
The Utah Starzz make their first ever playoff appearance losing to the Sacramento Monarchs 65-89. The Starzz ended up losing the series to the Monarch 2-0.

JUNE 22, 2002
Natalie Williams etches her name into the WNBA record books as she became the first player to record a 20-20 game, scoring 22 points and grabbing 20 boards against Sacramento.

AUGUST 20, 2002
The Utah Starzz defeated the Houston Rockets 75-72 in Game 3 of the first round of 2002 WNBA Playoffs to earn their first playoff series victory. The Starzz lost to the eventual WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks in the Western Conference finals.

KEY DATES IN SAN ANTONIO SILVER STARS HISTORY

JANUARY 29, 2002
Spurs Sports & Entertainment receives word from the WNBA that they are assured a team in 2003.

MARCH 18, 2002
WNBA in S.A. 2003 campaign kicks off with the goal of reaching 6,000 season ticket deposits by Nov. 15, 2002.

NOVEMBER 13, 2002
SS&E announces they have reached the 6,000 ticket deposit goal and has secured a WNBA team for play in 2003.

DECEMBER 5, 2003
SS&E learns that the Utah Starzz will relocate to San Antonio to begin play in 2003.

DECEMBER 18, 2003
Candi Harvey is named the first head coach in team history.

JANUARY 10, 2003
SS&E changes the name of its WNBA team to the San Antonio Silver Stars.

FEBRUARY 19, 2003
The San Antonio Silver Stars unveil their new logo.

APRIL 25, 2003
Coretta Brown becomes the first player drafted by the San Antonio Silver Stars with the 11th overall pick in the 2003 WNBA Draft.

MAY 24, 2003
The San Antonio Silver Stars make their home debut beating the Seattle Storm 65-56 in front of 15,593 fans at the SBC Center.

JUNE 24, 2003
The Silver Stars earn their first road win defeating the Sacramento Monarchs 60-57 at ARCO Arena.

FEBRUARY 2, 2004
Silver Stars guard Jennifer Azzi announces her retirement from the WNBA. Azzi leaves the Silver Stars as the all-time leader in assists, free-throw percentage, three-point field goal percentage and three-pointer attempted and made.

HISTORY OF THE WNBA

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA: Val Ackerman — the first president of the WNBA; Sheryl Swoopes — the first player signed to the WNBA; Cynthia Cooper — the league's first Most Valuable Player; the Houston Comets — the first WNBA Champions; Lisa Leslie — the first WNBA player to dunk.

However, the very first for the league was a "to-do list." With less than 15 months to tipoff, a league of its own began to unfold for the WNBA as each task was completed. The history of the WNBA follows:

ON THE AIR Before a player was signed or a staff member was in place, the league announced its broadcast partnerships with NBC, ESPN and Lifetime Television. It was decided that the WNBA season would be played in the summer when the sports calendar was less crowded and the games could be televised live. During a successful inaugural season, more than 50 million viewers watched WNBA games on the three networks.

ESPN2 joined NBC and ESPN to televise WNBA games beginning in 2001 and carried live coverage of the WNBA Draft. Lifetime, which had carried games during the first four seasons, continued as a partner through 2002, presenting Players' Journal, a weekly half-hour magazine show highlighting the on and off-court lives of the league's players and coaches.

Oxygen Media signed on to televise WNBA games in 2002, and ABC Sports became a new partner through a six-year agreement that extended the WNBA's national television coverage through 2008, its 12th season. Telemundo, the fastest growing Spanish language television network in the U.S., and NBA TV, the league's 24-hour television network, also joined ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and Oxygen in carrying WNBA games beginning with the 2003 season.

WNBA games and programming reached the largest global audience since the league's inception in 2003, with WNBA content broadcast to 183 countries in 26 languages. The league delivers an audience unique in sports. In-arena, gender breakdown is approximately 80-20 female-male. The TV audience is about 50-50 female-male, with a strong percentage of non-adult viewers.

THE PLAYERS AND THE TEAMS The first of the player signings was announced on October 23, 1996, with Sheryl Swoopes and Rebecca Lobo joining the league. The duo was soon followed by Lisa Leslie, Ruthie Bolton, Cynthia Cooper, Michele Timms (the first international player) and many more WNBA hopefuls.

Eight teams were announced for the league's inaugural season. The Eastern Conference consisted of the Charlotte Sting, Cleveland Rockers, Houston Comets and New York Liberty while the Western Conference was comprised of the Los Angeles Sparks, Phoenix Mercury, Sacramento Monarchs and Utah Starzz.

On April 29, 1999, the WNBA and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) announced the league's first collective bargaining agreement – a first of its kind in women's team sports.

By 2000, the league had expanded to 16 teams, with the Detroit Shock and Washington Mystics joining the league in 1998, the Minnesota Lynx and Orlando Miracle in 1999, and the Indiana Fever, Miami Sol, Portland Fire and Seattle Storm in 2000.

The 2002 season saw 176 women play professional basketball in 256 regular-season WNBA games (schedule history: 34 games in 2003; 32 games from 1999-2002; 30 in 1998; 28 in 1997). Continuing to showcase talented stars from around the world, the league featured 45 players from 22 countries.

In October 2002, the NBA Board of Governors voted to restructure the WNBA to allow individual team ownership, and to allow teams to be owned by non-NBA owners and located in non-NBA markets. Orlando, Miami, Portland and Utah elected not to assume ownership of their teams, and in December, the WNBA announced the relocation of the Utah Starzz to San Antonio, which had previously been awarded a WNBA franchise. The team would be named the Silver Stars.

On January 28, 2003, the Connecticut Sun were awarded the Orlando Miracle and became the newest WNBA franchise, with the Mohegan Tribe of Indians becoming the first non-NBA owner in league history.

On April 25, 2003, the WNBA and the WNBAPA signed its second collective bargaining agreement which gave WNBA players the first free agency rights in women's professional team sports.

On September 19, 2003, the Cleveland Cavaliers\Gund Arena Company announced that they decided they would no longer operate the Cleveland Rockers.

THE WNBA DRAFT The Comets selected Tina Thompson, the Pac-10 Conference's leading scorer, with the first pick of the Inaugural WNBA Draft. Margo Dydek, a 7-2 center from Poland, was selected first in the 1998 Draft by the Starzz, and two-time Associated Press Women's Basketball Player of the Year Charnique Holdsclaw was the Washington Mystics' No. 1 selection in the 1999 Draft. In 2000, the Cleveland Rockers selected Ann Wauters from Belgium as the first overall pick, and Australian Olympian Lauren Jackson went to the Seattle Storm with the No. 1 selection in 2001. In 2002, National Player of the Year Sue Bird was selected by Seattle, who had the top pick for the second consecutive year by virtue of the WNBA's first Draft Lottery, held in New York on November 13, 2001. The Cleveland Rockers made LaToya Thomas of Mississippi State the No. 1 selection in the 2003 WNBA Draft held Friday, April 25, 2003.

THE LOGOS AND THE UNIFORMS With players and teams in place, the league began its next task of creating logos and uniforms. The red, white and blue official WNBA logo – "Logo Woman" – was selected from about 50 different designs. After developing an extensive list of choices, the team names were selected by the league and the teams based on numerous factors, including: a tie to the NBA team name in that market, a link to a key characteristic of each city or state and/or the creation of a name fitting the current sports landscape. The uniforms also underwent several designs, and on May 21, 1997, the WNBA unveiled the team uniforms — two shorts silhouettes and three jerseys.

On May 1, 2003, the WNBA and Reebok unveiled new uniform designs which were created to maximize performance and provide optimal comfort for the players. The jerseys are tapered to fit a woman's body and are designed to be worn untucked, providing a free range of motion for the players. The new uniforms feature flat-back mesh material that incorporates Play Dry™ technology – Reebok's moisture management system that helps keep the athlete cooler, drier and more comfortable by using temperature and humidity-regulating properties in the fabric.

The WNBA and Reebok also unveiled a new style in the WNBA Footwear Collection by Reebok – the WNBA Isolation – at the beginning of the 2003 season. This shoe features the WNBA logo on the heel, tongue, sole and sock liner.

IT'S A BALL GAME The WNBA game consists of a 30-second clock, a 20-foot, 6-inch three-point line, two 20-minute halves, eleven-player rosters and a collegiate-regulation size ball. The WNBA's signature orange-and-oatmeal basketball by Spalding is 28.5 inches in circumference and one inch smaller than the NBA's regulation ball. In January 2003, Spalding Sports Worldwide and the WNBA announced the Spalding WNBA Infusion basketball, featuring a built-in, dual action Micro Pump®, as the new official game ball of the league beginning in the 2003 season.

MILLIONS OF FANS JOIN IN The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks 67-57. Then on August 22, the WNBA league attendance surpassed the 1 million mark at America West Arena in Phoenix. In 2001, the WNBA welcomed its 10 millionth fan on September 1 at the STAPLES Center in Los Angeles. In 2002, more than 2.5 million fans attended WNBA games for the second straight year, as regular-season attendance averaged more than 9,000 fans for the sixth straight season. In 2003, the WNBA season attendance topped the 2 million mark for the fourth consecutive year.

FANS GET CONNECTED ONLINE The league website, WNBA.com, is the single most authoritative source of information for WNBA fans around the world offering late-breaking news, real-time scores, statistics, behind-the-scenes access, video highlights, the most comprehensive women's sports fantasy basketball game, WNBA Virtual GM, live chats with WNBA players and personalities, expert analysis from WNBA insiders and complete websites for all 13 WNBA teams.

On May 31, 2003 WNBA.com featured the first-ever live video webcast of a game in women's professional sports history when the Detroit Shock played the Charlotte Sting. The success of the groundbreaking webcast lead to the launch of WNBA Broadband Season Pass, a multimedia subscription service featuring 10 additional live webcasts of WNBA games, WNBA Season Audio Pass and broadband highlights and features.

Overall the popularity of WNBA.com continues to soar. During the 2003 season, WNBA.com averaged over 60,000 visits per day.

IN THE COMMUNITY For the WNBA, the focus has been three primary outreach initiatives: Read to Achieve, a year-round, league-wide initiative that promotes the value of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children; the Breast Health Awareness program, an initiative designed to draw national attention to the issue of breast cancer and the importance of early detection; and the Jr. NBA and Jr. WNBA, a support organization for recreational youth basketball leagues that connects players, parents and coaches in an effort to heighten awareness and participation in youth basketball. In 2003, the league debuted its WNBA Mind. Body. Spirit. campaign, which encompasses the Breast Health Awareness program but also focuses on nutrition, exercise and positive self-image.

LEAGUE SHOWCASES ALL-STARS On July 14, 1999, the league held the Inaugural WNBA All-Star Game at Madison Square Garden in New York, televised live on ESPN. The capacity crowd of 18,649 witnessed the incredible sportsmanship, teamwork, enthusiasm, fan involvement and in-arena excitement that characterizes the WNBA. The Western Conference All-Stars – led by the game's Most Valuable Player and Los Angeles Sparks center Lisa Leslie – defeated the Eastern Conference 79-61.

All-Star excitement continued in 2000 as the game moved to the America West Arena in Phoenix on July 17. The West All-Stars defeated the East All-Stars 73-61 before a crowd of 17,717 as Houston's Tina Thompson captured MVP honors. Leslie earned her second All-Star MVP award at the 2001 WNBA All-Star Game, played at the TD Waterhouse Centre in Orlando, Fla., on July 16 in front of 16,906 fans. The West claimed its third victory with an 80-72 defeat of the East. The 2002 WNBA All-Star Game was played on Monday, July 15 in Washington, D.C., at the MCI Center. The West All-Stars defeated the East All-Stars 81-76 in front of a crowd of 19,487, with Leslie earning MVP honors for the third time. ESPN televised the game live through the 2002 game.

In 2003, the WNBA All-Star Game marked its fifth anniversary with a return to Madison Square Garden on July 12. The event was held on the weekend for the first time and made its network television debut on ABC. The West All-Stars won the event for the fifth straight year by beating the East All-Stars 84-75 in front of 18,610 fans, with Nikki Teasley of the Los Angeles Sparks taking home the MVP honors.

WNBA FINALS The first four years of the WNBA saw the Houston Comets dominate the league Finals and create the first dynasty of the WNBA. The Comets captured the inaugural Championship against New York on August 30, 1997 by a score of 65-51. Comets guard, Cynthia Cooper won the first Finals MVP award. In 1998, the WNBA Finals was expanded to a three-game series and Houston defeated Phoenix two games to one and Houston's Cynthia Cooper captured her second consecutive Finals MVP award. In 1999, New York advanced back to the Championship and played Houston, a rematch of the 1997 Championship game. The Comets outlasted the Liberty to win their third straight WNBA Championship, two games to one and Houston's Cynthia Cooper won her third Finals MVP award. In 2000, Houston and New York played for the third time in four years with the results the same as the previous years with Houston winning their fourth straight WNBA Championship, two games to none and Houston's Cynthia Cooper captured her fourth straight Finals MVP award. In 2001, Los Angeles knocked off Houston in the early rounds of the Western Conference playoffs and advanced on to meet Charlotte in the WNBA Finals. Los Angeles, behind the play of Finals MVP Lisa Leslie, won the WNBA Finals two games to none. In 2002, Los Angeles advanced to the WNBA Finals and earned the right to defend their WNBA championship versus New York. The Sparks defeated the Liberty two games to zero and won their second consecutive Finals and Lisa Leslie won the WNBA Finals MVP award for the second straight year.

In 2003, the Los Angeles Sparks returned to the Finals with the opportunity to win three straight WNBA Championships. However, the Detroit Shock advanced through the Eastern Conference and reached the Finals and because they finished the regular season with the best record in the league, they earned home court advantage for the Finals. It ended up to be vital as the Sparks won the first game in Los Angeles to take a one game to zero lead. Detroit bounced back to win game two, 62-61 to even the series one game a piece. The third and final game was played in front of a sell out crowd and record attendance for the WNBA of 22,076. The Shock captured the WNBA crown winning the game by a score of 83-78 as Detroit center Ruth Riley was awarded the Series MVP.

WE GOT GAME Women's basketball has come a long way since its beginnings in 1892 when Senda Berenson adapted James Naismith's basketball rules for women. And with the continued growth of the WNBA, the sport is sure to go even farther. For more information on the WNBA and its history, log onto WNBA.com.

2004 WNBA PLAYOFF FORMAT

Eight teams qualify for the 2004 WNBA Playoffs, the top four teams from each conference. The first and fourth place teams and the second and third place teams will each play a best-of-three first round series. The winners of the first round series in each conference will play a best-of-three conference final. The two conference final winners will meet in a best-of-three championship series called the WNBA Finals.

TIEBREAK PROCEDURE

The following tiebreak procedure shall be used to break ties for playoff eligibility, home court advantage and draft order. In determining draft order, non-playoff teams will always select before playoff teams.

1. TWO-WAY TIE BETWEEN TEAMS IN THE SAME CONFERENCE

In order to break a tie, the following criteria will be utilized in the order set forth:

(a) Better record in head-to-head games.

(b) Better winning percentage within own conference.

(c) Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season.

(d) Better point differential in games head-to-head.

(e) Coin toss.

2. TWO-WAY TIE BETWEEN TEAMS IN DIFFERENT CONFERENCES

In order to break a tie, the following criteria will be utilized in the order set forth:

(a) Better record in head-to-head games.

(b) Better winning percentage against teams in the opposite conference.

(c) Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season.

(d) Better point differential in games head-to-head.

(e) Coin toss.

3. MORE THAN TWO TEAMS TIED

As many teams as possible will be eliminated at each step. As soon as one or more teams are eliminated at any step, the process must begin again from step (1).

(a) Better winning percentage among all head-to-head games involving tied teams.

(b) Better winning percentage against teams within conference (if all teams are from the same conference) or better record against teams in the opposite conference (if one or more teams are in different conferences).

(c) Better winning percentage against all teams with a .500 or better record at the end of the season.

(d) Better point differential in games involving tied teams.

(e) Coin toss.

NOTE: Conference ties that affect playoff seeding will be broken prior to multi-team, two conference, draft order ties but the outcome of such playoff-seeding tiebreaker will not impact the subsequent multi-team, draft order tiebreaker (i.e., with more than two teams tied, it is possible that a higher seeded playoff team involved in a multi-team, two-conference draft order tiebreaker will also receive a higher draft selection).

SCHEDULING

FIRST ROUND

The first and second round teams in each conference will have home court advantage in the First Round and will host Game Two and Three (if needed) of the series after playing Game One on the road.

CONFERENCE FINALS

The team with the better regular season record will have home court advantage in the Conference Finals and will host Game Two or Three (if needed) of the series after playing Game One of the road.

WNBA FINALS

The team with the better regular season record will have home court advantage in the WNBA Finals and will host Game Two or Three (if needed) of the series after playing Game One of the road.
